

half-alive, Beige

been keeping you out of my mind until i see you it reminds me of all the times that you'd meltdown back then
i didn't know why

now i'm in the same place but this time it's different now we're just working you're not my girlfriend

but i know
you better than anyone else here

now this is familiar you're having a meltdown & nobody else knows why but i know you, don't i i know, what you don't like the color beige

halloween
getting surprised by anything back then it was in a dream was it all a dream?
was it even real?

Summerland became real
it was too sweet
doing cartwheels

play in my mind on repeat
how i can fall asleep
i loved you now you'll never leave

so i comforted you when you needed it gave you the space to be frustrated i know that it's hard but you're doing fine
you held me close
apologized
said you drank too much i was not surprised
then you held me tight
maybe its fine

but you held on why'd you hold on?
weren't you the one who called it off?

i guess it's never over
