

Half Japanese, Horseshoes

Horseshoe's over my front door, workin' for me all day long.
I saw it all loud and clear, as bright as a thousand suns.
Heads or tails... I'd win both ways. There's no turning back...
Heads or tails or tails or heads, I'm gonna get you back....
Heads or heads or heads or heads, I'm gonna get you back...

Horseshoe's over my front door, working for me day and night.
Horseshoe's over my front door, making everything all right.

I have a picture in my pocket I carry all the time
I have a picture in my pocket, and soon i'll make you mine.
Horseshoe's over my front door, working for me day and night.
horseshoes over my front door, making everything all right.
Yeah, all right, well, all right, all right...
