

Halfcocked, Drive Away

Electric hot pink / You push me in and you pull me under
When I start to sink / Smell gasoline as the engine rumbles

Chorus:

If I could drive away tonight
If I could leave this tired life
If I could find a way to let it fade
I would never have to lie
If I could drive away tonight

Retro acid green / The fuzzy dice sway to the time you're making
Like a used-up scene / You fake a smile from the drugs you're taking

(Chorus)

6,000 miles of empty pavement
Lost track of time and where the days went
Too many Lies I'll never face them

(Chorus)
