

Halfcocked, Held Under

Shove it down
Turn it off
Barry all of the things you want
Push it back
Kick it in
Just forget about where you've been
Love, I thought you wanted to be held under
Love, I thought you wanted to be
Hold it in
Back it up
'Til you're ready to just blow up
Brush it off
Wear it thin
'Til there's nothing to hold it in
Love, I thought you wanted to be held under
Love, I thought you wanted to be
Love, I thought you wanted to be held under
Love, I thought you wanted to be
And you're not so tough
You just fell in love
And you're not so tough
You just fell in love
Love, I thought you wanted to be held under
Love, I thought you wanted to be
Love, I thought you wanted to be held under
Love, I thought you wanted to be
