

Halford Rob, Betrayal

Will you go to heaven
Will you land in hell
Are the things you're praying for
The things that serve you well?
Did you get satisfaction
Have you paid the price
Can you look me in the eye
Say you found paradise?
Betrayal, you are what you choose
Betrayal, got everything to loose
Betrayal, one day you'll know
Betrayal, you reap what you sow
Sell your soul for mercy
Heed the reapers call
Waiting for that heart attack
Your back's against the wall
Stealing from tomorrow
Is no way to live
But when you've got no future
Then there's nothing left to give
Betrayal, you are what you choose
Betrayal, got everything to loose
Betrayal, one day you'll know
Betrayal, you reap what you sow
So when you get to heaven
When you land in hell
Are the things you're praying for
The things that serve you well?
Betrayal, you are what you choose
Betrayal, got everything to loose
Betrayal, one day you'll know
Betrayal, you reap what you sow
