Halford Rob, The one you love to hate

You may not like the future And we're not here to preach to you We'll take you to the killing floor. You think you want to know me You think you want to own me But I have nothing you can buy. I can break you I can raise you Bring you to your knees Cause I'm the one you love to hate. You can't fool me You can't rule me You only wanna hang around Cause I'm the one you love to hate. So come on get a load of this Something you can't afford to miss You're just a vulture in my veins. Your nails won't crucify me Got money, but you can't see Your only future is your past. I can break you I can raise you Bring you to your knees Cause I'm the one you love to hate. You can't fool me You can't rule me You only wanna hang around Cause I'm the one you love to hate. I can break you I can raise you Bring you to your knees Cause I'm the one you love to hate. You can't fool me You can't rule me You only wanna hang around Cause I'm the one you love to hate.
