

Hall Kristen, Don't Tell Me

there's no answer that comes easy when you ask me what i fear i am ill-equipped to tell you you are ill-equipped to hear take for instance my aggression warnings you neglect to heed when in fact it draws you closer because it's just the thing you need don't tell me what you think i'm thinking of i've had enough of dreaming, this is love so we come and go like fashion there for all the world to see and to keep up with the changes we are altered constantly and the trophies i've collected well now they don't mean a thing all the photographs and trinket and my precious ruby ring
don't tell me what you think i'm thinking of you've never stood in my shoes, have you love? well to tell the truth i'm lonely but that's a feeling i do well love has bought and sold me thrown me down the wishing well don't tell me what you think i'm thinking of
this is love
this is love
this is love
this is love....
