

Hall & Oates, Realove

Music by Daryl Hall, John Oates

Lyrics by Daryl Hall, John Oates

One man says, "Look to heaven for true love"
One child so blind with the stars in her eyes
So why do you think that could be right
She tries but there ain't no way to buy second sight
Oh those Eastern ways on Western nites
I want to be the heart of your desire

ReaLove is a passion play
ReaLove is a passion play

You mean to make him take it your way
I know his mind is in the shadows
He'll take you all the way thru midnite
So sad you can't run but you can't fight
Oh those Eastern ways on Western nites
I want to be the heart of your desire

ReaLove is a passion play
ReaLove is a passion play
