

Halo Friendlies, Don't Wake The Cat

You creep so slowly but you'll never get away
You creep so softly but you'll never get away

Don't wake the cat cuz she's not really sleeping
She's got her eye on you, she sees you when you're creeping
Your instinct is to escape, maybe you'll get a head start
But she's playing for keeps and she's going straight for your heart

Two toed paw holds you down
Two ton weight it holds you down
Too late now you're on the ground

Don't wake the cat cuz she's not really sleeping
She's got her sights on you, she sees you when she's dreaming
But don't get tired now, a broken heart can heal
Don't let her get you down cuz it's not love that you feel

Little boy don't get caught
Don't you know what I taught
Little boy don't get caught
A lesson learned for those that hurt
You'll get what you deserve
A lesson learned for those that hurt
You'll get what you deserve
