

Halo, Voice From The Grave

I don't feel like sleeping,
I don't feel too good,
I'm alone,
Now you're gone,

You're all that I lived for,
All that I knew,
How to do,
But you're gone.

You killed me today,
Blew me away,
So how can I live,
Without you.

So I breathe for the last time,
And these are the last words,
You'll hear me say.

I guess you're the lucky one,
Your life goes on,
So have fun,
But I'm done.

You killed me today,
Blew me away,
So how can I live,
Without you.

Perhaps in the next life,
I'll see you again,
And I'll love you forever,
That's the end.

But somehow it seems,
Whatever I say,
I'm just a voice from the grave,
Without you.
