

Halou, Blue Eye Smile Girl

And now it all is clear
Why i lose to blue eye smile girl
With all that she has got
All she lacks- a neon halo

And when she laughs your heart opens
And when she walks your eyes follow her

Don't be too fast to slap your back
For perfect perfect
She may be on your arm
And she has you-
But you don't have her

And don't pretend you didn't see
What a fool i was, it's so obvious
