

Halou, Morsecode

Write your codes
Throw me off
I've captured your enigma machine
Better have tried
And consequently fell
They lacked this fine decoder ring

I am here
I read you
Loud and clear
I am here
I read you
Over

I sneak inside
Retrace your steps
Movements make motives clear
Your phrases fly
Fast and furious
And I am fluent now

You're coming through without a glitch
We read you loud and clear
