

Hammerfall, Bushido

Screaming and twisting
He's pounding his sword to the ground
A soul made of fire
A heart made of solid steel,
Fear the sound

Guided by courage,
The fear of eternal disgrace
The spirits of daring
The trail of his life brought fail to embrace

Trapped in the corner
Hell or paradise?
Fought with the failure or send sacrifice?

I'm the warrior, I am
In the rising sun I stand
My true color is shining bright inside
The odium flames

Winding and turning
He's seeking the path to survive
The hunter is the hunted
The specter within will soon come alive
The spirits of daring by seven diverges unite

Never surrender
Be ready to kill
When killing is right
Shame and dishonor
The wrap of the sword
Beyond the barriers
The honor is restored

I'm the warrior, I am
In the rising sun I stand
My true color is shining bright inside
The odium flames

I'm the warrior, I am
I'm a soldier under command
In the setting sun, I carry on
The code of the warrior soul

Live by the code
Die by the sword

I'm the warrior, I am
In the rising sun I stand
My true color is shining bright inside
The odium flames

I'm the warrior, I am
I'm a soldier under command
In the setting sun, I carry on
The code of the warrior soul

This is the way!
