

Hammerfall, Living In Victory

Do you remember how we used to say Everything around us are made of clay
We were the Kings and the others the fools, playing by our rules

Adorned with golden shapes and silver dreams You count the seconds, every moment seems like your lost to the stars up above Eventhou you're falling

Spoken words made of trust, burning bridges between us, turning diamonds into rust

You're running out of time, the higher that you climb
the deeper you will fall and lose sight of it all
Out of time, on the line
Living In Victory

You spread your words, I say devoid of truth What's left is fantasy of endless youth
You made a promise, a little white lie
Now you're falling from the sky

Chasing dragons by the moon, burning bridges around you, your deepest fears begin to loom

You're running out of time, the higher that you climb
the deeper you will fall and lose sight of it all
Out of time, on the line
Living In Victory

Is it someone that hears you, is it somebody there
All you know and all you will get, lie so deep down inside

Dreams of fortune in the dust, when all your bridges are burnt, turning being into lust

You're running out of time, the higher that you climb
the deeper you will fall and lose sight of it all
Out of time, on the line
Living in sin

Out of time, the higher that you climb
the deeper you will fall and lose sight of it all
Out of time, on the line
Living In Victory
