

Hammerfall, Steel Meets Steel

(Zuruck)

Back in 1095, when the call to arms came we had the red cross sown on Sent to save the holy land and crush the infidels with strength from above

STEEL MEETS STEEL

On towards victory we march, the guiding star lead us to the battle field There, the heathens were subdued, and in the end we forced them all to yield or die

STEEL MEETS STEEL

In July in '99, the Holy City was stormed and won Jerusalem was freed, we thanked the lord for our glory

We, the Templars, have survived by honor and pride and the blessing of the sword The quest of the war, forever sung to the sound of steel meets steel
