

Hammerfall, The Fire Burns Forever

Fire burns! Fire burns! Fire burns!

You danced with the devil,
Now your soul is bruised and scarred.
There ain't no pride and dignity:
We've been down the rusty boulevard.
You lived your life,
Thought you'd be immortalized.
The moral of your story:
What goes up must come back down.

Fire burns!
The fire burns forever.
Fire burns!
The fire burns forever more.

A moment of silence
Just before you hit the stage:
This is your day of reckoning
To pay back all the dues and turn the page.
You hit rock bottom
And you stood the count to ten.
Came back to harvest glory,
Now your star will shine again.

Fire burns!
The fire burns forever.
Fire burns!
The fire burns forever more.

Fire burns!
The fire burns forever.
Fire burns!
The fire burns forever more.

'Cause every step,
The light races follow.
'Cause every move we make
Might be our last mistake.

Fire burns!
The fire burns forever.
Fire burns!
The fire burns forever more.

Fire burns!
The fire burns forever.
Fire burns!
The fire burns forever more.

Fire, fire, burn!
