

Hammerfall, Twilight Princess

Where have I been? I don't know where to begin
Memories clash, painfully clash

Forever gone, my mind is clear but undone
Storms raging on, sensing the other one

Here, in the thunderous silence I sit, petrified
Knowing the Twilight Princess will come

I hear her lies, piercing through me, hypnotized
Cursing the skieg, who I become, I despise

Nooo, as the dusk is approaching, I hear her again
It's the Twilight Princess I fear
Oh, her beauty, ethereal, out of this world
Because the Twilight Princess is here

Give me a reason, you won't give me a sign
Give me a reason to cross the line
Darkness has come
And the last rays of sunlight are gone
What matters now won't matter soon
In the light of the moon

I once was dead, time standing still and at last
Free in my head, never remember the past

I must obey, finding an innocent prey
To make the Twilight Princess smile
Always astray, need her to show me the way
It is my Twilight Princess' trial

Yes, as the dusk is approaching, I hear her again
It's the Twilight Princess I fear
Oh, her beauty, ethereal, out of this world
Because the Twilight Princess is me

She's always with me
