

Hammers Of Misfortune, War Anthem

Praised - praised be our vanity
Now that we have our own tragedy
No time for subtlety
War is upon us, oh can't you see

Here in the holy land
See how united and strong we stand
Slogans and banners for every man
Here in the holy land

Death - death to the infidels
Sons of our servants shall serve and serve us well
And gifted with endless war
Flags and fanatics forevermore
