

Hammet Melanie, Can I Call Your Heart A Home

It's one of those nights and it's too dark to be alone just one of those nights i don't know where you are, there's a chill in the stars and the moon must be turning to stone

CHORUS

when the day is too cold and awake or when the night is too warm and alone and there isn't a time when you're not in my mind can i call your heart a home it's one of those days and the sun is a solitary eye just one of those days when the air is too near, and i'm wanting you here all alone burning under the sky

it was one of those dreams and there were stars and sun above just one of those dreams it was night it was day and you asked me to stay now i live in your shelter of love
