

Hammet Melanie, Somewhere In The Night

i thought i was awake - but i must have been dreaming 'cause somewhere in the daylight i fell in love with you i wanted to believe i'd be safe in your arms i wanted to stop and rest a while and spend a life with you CHORUS

but somewhere in the night a heart is hunting somewhere in the dark it seeks the prey somewhere in a perfect dream of live i keep running away i thought it was a dream until i became haunted 'cause somewhere in the magic was the ghost that i fear i'm trying to believe in the love that you offer but the voices keep calling and i'm afraid not to hear i thought i was awake i thought it was a dream i'm trying to believe hold me i'm afraid

somewhere in the darks it seeks the prey somewhere in a nightmare i call love i keep running away
