□English Lyrics□
Tackling a hectic schedule,
Sunday is the only exciting day
I want to play, I want to slay but still can't figure out the right way
"When's OK?" comes a DM
It's OK! Effort-free
Ah, I've been lucky these days, happy Sunday

Sounding out each other,
we share the table and say "Hi"
Our eyes meet and the real game starts here

"Relativity theory"? I don't know
I'm getting up now

"Pardon me for leaving"

Sorry, Sorry, I'm sorry, I know now
Let's just run away
Sorry, Sorry, I'm sorry, I know now
Let's just run away
Peck on, peck on the ground
Like a real grown-up bowing and behaving right
Peck on, peck on the ground more
Are you treating me like a child?

Hey, you're too sweet on yourself as if you're a candy
Your venti attitude makes me wanna punch
Thrills are your spice of life; good for you!
Unlucky, make it clear, going amok with you there

Here goes the great liberation!
More or less vague
Great pinch-hitter VS. Bye-bye
Everyday goes with a flow
Catch it early, get it early, ride the wave on a journey
Am I stepping myself up?
I'm brushing myself up!
With the world at my back
I give my all to send out lucid rap
I'll do anything!

The way they do is bowing and smiling
I feel out of place at a drinking party
"With an honor student vision, work your way up"
I'm getting up now

"Pardon me for leaving"

Sorry, Sorry, I'm sorry, I know now
Let's just run away
Sorry, Sorry, I'm sorry, I know now
Let's just run away
Peck on, peck on the ground
like a real grown-up bowing and behaving right
Peck on, peck on the ground more
Are you treating me like a kid?
