

Hanah G, As If Nothing

I am alone with myself
Too often than I would like
Be with yourself
Streets, rain and me
Sometimes I think silently
And a scream in your head
Maybe someone in a few years
He'll be closer to me than me
Tell me will you listen to me
As if nothing
You'll take me in
As if nothing
I'll tell you who I am
You let me forget it already
Each of my roles
Do you listen to me
As if nothing
I am lost in broad daylight
I soak up black at night
Like cards, ink
I don't have dreams often
When I feel somewhere under the skin
The chill of their words
I know someone in a few years
He'll be closer to me than me
Tell me will you listen to me
As if nothing
You will love me
As if nothing
I'll tell you about everything
I don't have to pretend anymore
Someone I am not
Do you listen to me
Tell me will you listen to me
As if nothing
You will love me
As I am
