

Hanah G, I'm Fine With u

I'm fine with you
The world is better with you
Because I can be myself in it
I can laugh with you
With you on my way somehow
When soul mates attract yes
It's impossible, suddenly you can just like that
I'm fine with you
Better this world with you
Because I can be myself in it
You know me so well
You understand without words
And difficult is simple
When I have you here
And when it's gray
You make you laugh to tears
It has been the same for years
I'm not afraid of that
Sometimes you are gone and sometimes you are
Life is a game of roulette
But with you always a good color
Together we have super power
Great composition is great because
Wherever you are, you will always be there
When soul mates attract each other yes
It's impossible, suddenly you can just like that
I'm fine with you
The world is better with you
Because I can be myself in it
I can laugh with you
With you on my way somehow
When soul mates attract each other yes
It's impossible, suddenly you can just like that
I'm fine with you
Better this world with you
Because I can be myself in it
Like a rollercoaster
One up, one down
Friendship is the problem
Divide in half
It is better together, for better and for worse
In our friendship I am not afraid of that
Once on the wagon, and once underneath
Every step together
Don't get discouraged on your way to your dreams
Together we have super power
A great cure for all of this
Which yourself is unattainable
When soul mates attract each other yes
It's impossible, suddenly you can just like that
I'm fine with you
The world is better with you
Because I can be myself in it
I can laugh with you
With you on my way somehow
When soul mates attract each other yes
It's impossible, suddenly you can just like that
I'm fine with you
Better this world with you
Because I can be myself in it
