

Handsome Devil, Hello Somebody

Well Guess who's in the neighborhood?
I don't need your fancy invitation,
I ain't coming to the front door, thought I might slide in for some private conversation,

I'm tired of these people,
how they put me down,
Well Here I am in your face,
I'll prove them wrong,

Hello How do you do?
I was just passing through and thinking of you,
and I Want Somebody, Somebody

Well I just might crash your party, understand I'm only looking for a good time,
and if I seem a little rude, please excuse me I was raised on the dark side,

No I ain't too particular,
It ain't like that,
See I just want your company,
Understand? Yeah

Hello How do you do?
I was just passing through and thinking of you,
and I Want Somebody, Somebody (x3)

And I'm tired of these people, how they put me down.
