

Handsome Furs, The Radio's Hot Sun

When you were small and crawlin' out the river
We thought you were an animal
Then you returned, your parents house there felt
Like a thousand years ago
La la la la la la
La la la la la la

And when I was small, and living underwater
At the bottom of a great black sea
Silent and floating, there with my brother
Now it don't mean much to me
La la la la la la
La la la la la la

Oh when we met, our bodies remembered
That we were only animals
We'll build a house, and keep out the water
Until its kicking can't be felt at all
La la la la la la
La la la la la la

And in the radio's hot sun
We knew nothing of the other side
In the radio's hot sun
We felt it's light right behind your eyes
In the radio's hot sun
We know nothing of the other side
In the radio's hot sun
We felt it's light right behind your eyes
