hania rani, Hello

Say la la la here Say la la la low I am waiting for nothing Waiting alone

Hello hello hello hello Room full of silence Darker than night Somebody is calling It's time for goodbye

Hello hello hello hello hello And the lights of midnight Leaving me up Through the open window Is it a sign No words of wisdom To calm me down

Hello hello hello
And the lights of midnight
Leaving me up
Through the open window
Is it a sign
No words of wisdom
To calm me down

Hello hello hello

Cutting the distance
With cigarette smoke
Nobody is talking
The words seems unknown

Hello hello hello hello

I haven't been dreaming since couples of nights The dreams are forbidden They just bring you down

Hello hello hello hello And the lights of midnight Leaving me up Through the open window Is it a sign No words of wisdom To calm me down

Hello hello hello
And the lights of midnight
Leaving me up
Through the open window
Is it a sign
No words of wisdom
To calm me down

Hello hello

Hello hello hello hello

Hello hello hello
And the lights of midnight
Leaving me up
Through the open window
Is it a sign
No words of wisdom
To calm me down

Hello hello hello
And the lights of midnight
Leaving me up
Through the open window
Is it a sign
No words of wisdom
To calm me down

Hello hello
