

Hank Locklin, First Time

You opened the door to heaven the first time I kissed you the first time
With you in my arms I knew then the first time I kissed you you were mine
I can't stay away from you it's true
You were meant for me and I was meant for you
I've fallen in love with an angel the first time I kissed you the first time [ guitar + piano ]
I can't stay away from you...
