

Hank Locklin, From Heaven To Heartache

From heaven to heartache is such a long way to go
From holdin' an angel to onliness in her soul
I said some things that I didn't mean to say
And then like a fool I turned and just walked away
From heaven to heartache I felt my world turnin' blue
From heaven to heartache I learned how much I need you
I'm sorry if I've made my angel cry and if I ever get by again
From heartache to heaven I'll never leave again
From heaven to heartache...
