

Hank Locklin, Girls Get Prettier (Every Day)

Everytime I look at you I pinch myself can it be true
This lovely girl is really mine any wonder I find
The girls get prettier every day cuter and lovelier in every way
The girls get prettier every day and honey especially you

I saw your friend in town today her hair mixed up in a brand new way
She's as cute as she can be and it seems to me
The girls get prettier...

Tomboy Beckie comes to town wearing her brand new satin gown
All the fellows turn around and their hearts begin to pound
The girls get prettier...
Honey especially you honey especially you honey especially you
