

Hank Locklin, I Can See An Angel Walkin'

I can see an angel walkin' someone else is by her side
I can hear an angel talkin' and she looks so satisfied
I can see an angel smilin' by her side I wanna be
In my heart I'll go on cryin' only tears are left for me
Time will change many things your seasons will come and go
But I won't ever change all my life I'll love her so
I can see an angel laughin' she's the one that I adore
I will always keep on hidin' all my life for ever more

Time will change many things...
