

Hank Locklin, I Walk Alone

I walk alone where once we wandered it seems so strange since you are gone
Till you return I'll stay the same dear I'll still be true and walk alone
By stars above I swear to love you with all the love I've ever known
Now we're apart you'll always own me when teardrops start I walk alone
[piano]
This lonely night was made to ponder the golden hours that we once knew
No matter where you are out yonder I walk alone and think of you
The flame of love is brightly burning you know that I'm your very own
Each night I'll pray for your returning but while you're gone I walk alone
