

Hank Locklin, There's More Pretty Girls Than One

There's more pretty girls than one there's more pretty girls than one
Every town I ramble around there's more pretty girls than one

Well I am a rambling man I done roam this world around
I've always been a rounder boy since my girl turned me down
There's more pretty girls than one...

[ac.guitar]

Now listen all you rounders let me tell you what you'd do
Don't fall in love with a pretty little girl unless you know she's true
There's more pretty girls than one...
