

Hank Snow, Between Fire And Water

You're mine for awhile till a new face appears
And then you're no longer with me
They call me a fool and laugh at my tears
For they know I'll never be free

Between fire and water that's where you got me
I get burned every time I'm with you
Between fire and water I cry an ocean
Cause without you I'm bluer than blue

My love cannot die if you break my heart
I'll want you the rest of my days
I try to forget that each time I start
I'm still but a slave to your way
Between fire and water...
[guitar]
Between fire and water...
