

Hank Snow, Blue Sea Blues

Blue sea keep a rolling on your weary way
My sweetie has left me she done drifted away
She hopped a big ocean liner headed out to the sea
And left a world full of worries on the beach with me

Break (fiddle - guitar)

I know that she's sorry 'cause she left me this way
So hurry and tell her to sail back to me
And when you find the big steamship just look for this sign
There'll be an ocean of teardrops trailing behind
