Hank Snow, Blue Sea Blues

Blue sea keep a rolling on your weary way My sweetie has left me she done drifted away She hopped a big ocean liner headed out to the sea And left a world full of worries on the beach with me

Break (fiddle - guitar)

I know that she's sorry 'cause she left me this way So hurry and tell her to sail back to me And when you find the big steamship just look for this sign There'll be an ocean of teardrops trailing behind
