

Hank Snow, Handcuffed To Love

I'm handcuffed to the only love I knew
Yet I never committed any crime
Like a prisoner alone in his cell
I'm handcuffed to the love I've thought was mine

There's no way out and no one to ease my pain
My memories are haunting me in vain
You promised to be always at my side forever until the end of time
Now you're laughing at the tears I cannot hide
I'm handcuffed to the love I've thought was mine

[guitar + vibes]

I'm handcuffed to the only love I knew
Like a prisoner a serving a lifetime
Oh Lord I need your helping hand
I'm handcuffed to the love I've thought was mine

There's no way out and no one to ease my pain
My memories are haunting me in vain
I pray you will return to me and remain until to end of time
Please open the pathway to your heart
I'm handcuffed to the love I've thought was mine
