

Hank Snow, Tangled Mind

I've got a tangled mind I've got a broken heart
Don't have a dime and my time is short
I got a gal somewhere I guess she thinks I'm dead
I'd go back home if I could clear my head

Cryin' cryin' all of the time
I've got a broken heart I've got a tangled mind
[ piano + guitar ]
I lost a million friends I'm trudging on in the dark
Can't find my way don't know where to start
I had a home one time I left it all behind
I can't go back I've got a tangled mind

(Cryin' cryin' all of the time)
I've got a broken heart I've got a tangled mind
