

Hank Snow, When That Someone You Love Doe

The ballroom was quiet and empty the band it had played the last waltz
The beautiful moonbeams from heaven o'er lovers so softly did fall
A boy from the band saw me standing and down o'er the floor made his way
Are you waiting your sweetheart he asked me then to him those words I did say

When that someone you love doesn't love you and you are lonely and sad
Fate dealt a hand and you've lost it the best pal that you ever had
Each appeal that you made was a failure your romance had come to the end
And that someone you love doesn't love you that's when your heartaches begin [ steel ]
When that someone you love...
