

Hank Thompson, Rollin' In Your Sweet Sunshine

ROLLIN' IN YOUR SWEET SUNSHINE

(Bob Morrison - Jay M. Harris)

'75 Southern Nights Music

I'm rollin' rollin' rollin' in the sunshine of your sweet sweet love
So many loves left me in darkness I'd lock my heart and slept alone at night
But when you smiled a window opened
In poured the sun you were the one who let him to light
And now I'm rollin' in your sweet sweet sunshine
In a dream I never dreamed of dreaming of Well I'm rollin' in your sweet sweet sunshine
Rollin' in the heaven of your sweet sweet love
Your love peeked in like early morning and softly took the shadows from my mind
Gone were the doubts the dark suspicions
Your gentle ways made better days so easy to find
And now I'm rollin' in...
And now I'm rollin' in...