

Hank Thompson, Signed Sealed And Delivered

Signed sealed and delivered a package containing my heart
To open remove the wrapper but please don't tear it apart
You tore up this heart when you left me you left me alone and so blue
I'm sending this special delivery the postman will bring it to you [fiddle]
I thought perhaps you would keep it just for a while don't you see
Oh darling please keep it forever without you it's no good to me
Signed sealed and delivered a package containing my heart
I send it to you as a token I'm sorry we're so far apart
