

Hank Thompson, What Will I Do Next Monday

What will I do next Monday after you've left me alone
What will I do next Monday with no one to call my own
Church bells will ring next Sunday on your wedding day
But what will I do next Monday after you've gone away
[piano]

Wednesday was just like Tuesday Thursday will be much the same
Friday I'll still be dreaming hoping to hear your name
Church bells will ring next Sunday on your wedding day
But what will I do next Monday after you've gone away
