

Hank Williams III, Country Heroes

Well, oh what a feeling that burns down low when you ain't got no where to turn,
or no where to go
It makes me feel like sometimes I'm outta control
So I'm gonna get wasted with all my country heroes

I'm drinkin' some George Jones, and a little bit of Coe Haggard's easin' my misery
and Waylon's keepin' me from home Hank's givin' me those high times -
Cash is gonna sing it low
I'm here gettin' wasted - just like my country heroes

I'm drinkin' that whiskey out of that glass
and if that ain't country,
Well boys, you can kiss my ass
I wanna hear them old songs - nothin' of the new
'cause this might be the last time
I'm gonna see you

So I'm drinkin' some George Jones,
and a little bit of Coe
and Waylon's keepin' me from home
Hanks givin' me those high times -
and I'm here gettin' wasted -
just like my country heroes

with all my country heroes
