

Hank Williams III, Go Fuck You

Well down the Mississippi highway into New Orleans
I said everything is going ok

I got my hillbilly ride and my gal by my side and we're doing it all the way

We're just a cruising around from town to town and we're doing what we like to do

And if you don't like our hillbilly sound
then hey man, go fuck you

I say hey man,
can't you hear what I'm trying to say?
Well I like to get back by the railroad tracks
and wait for that lonely train

I say hey man,
can't you hear what I'm trying to say?
We're just some hillbilly jokers who might be some tokers
and we're doing it all the way

Well I'm a little bit crazy on the rowdy side and that's ok with me

Because I smoke my weed and I drink my wine, and I'm doing it every day

They just don't understand we're just having fun doing it like they used to do

our hillbilly sound
then hey man, go fuck you

I say hey man,
can't you hear what I'm trying to say?

I say hey man,
can't you hear what I'm trying to say?
We're just some hillbilly jokers
