

Hank Williams Jr., Are You Lonely Too

Darling I'm so lonely here all alone things're not the same dear now that you are gone
Are you lonely too my darling do mem'ries make you cry
Are you sorry now that we said goodbye
My days are full of sorrow my nights are full of tears
And there's no hope of tomorrow weeks have turned into years
Won't you please reconsider take me back in your heart
For I don't want to live if we're gonna stay apart
Now when you get this letter if you feel the way I do
Please hurry on back home for I'll be waitin' there for you
[guitar]
Won't you please reconsider...
