

Hank Williams Jr., Good Leavin' Alone

I'm gonna give her a good leavin' alone she thinks I want her to come back home
She thinks I've been cryin' since she's been gone
Well I'm gonna give her a good leavin' alone
I'm gonna give her a good forgettin' about
And all of my dreams she's a gonna be left out
I'm gonna let her keep her heart of stone
And I'm gonna give her a good leavin' alone
She thinks I need what we all studied in biology
But I'm gettin' smart and I'm a gonna use a little REVERSE psychology
I'm gonna give her a good leavin' alone
I ain't her dog and I ain't gonna beg for bone
She's got a heart as warm as an ice cream cone
Well I'm a gonna give her a good leavin' alone
[dobro]
She thinks I need what we all...
Yeah I'm a gonna give her a good leavin' alone
