

Hank Williams Jr., Hanging My Teardrops Out To

I'm hanging my teardrops out to dry over you no longer will I cry
You hurt me and you lie too many times so I'm hanging my teardrops out to dry
I gave you everything I had dear but all I've got in return were these tears
You took all my love and my pride I'm hanging my teardrops out to dry
I'm gonna try to start over again but I really doubt that I can
There's nothing for me to do but forget about you my heart's had all it can stand
I'm hanging my teardrops out to dry over you no longer will I cry
You took all my love and my pride I'm hanging my teardrops out to dry
