

Hank Williams Jr., I'm In No Condition

Don't look at me with love in your eyes
Go look for someone that can make it worth while
I'm hurtin' from the love affair I didn't want to end
I'm in no condition to try to love again
Don't smile at me because it's no use I don't have a smile that I can give to you
Someday I might look you up but let me be till then
I'm in no condition to try to love again
I'm in no condition to try to love again
The girl I love just broke my heart and it must have time to mend
She gave me the breeze now she's gone with the wind
I'm in no condition to try to love again
