

Hank Williams Jr., I'm Just Crying Cause I Care

You were my every dream come true but your love can never share
A heart can't smile if it's filled with tears now I'm just crying cause I care
I'm crying cause your love is gone my burden seems more than I can bear
I saw my angel pass me by now I'm just crying cause I care

[piano]

Your eyes were like the heaven's blue your heart I thought so true and fair
Still you'll always be mine in dreams now I'm just crying cause I care
May all the dreams that you dream come true this will be my daily prayer
May life reserve for you the best now I'm just crying cause I care
Now I'm just crying cause I care
