

Hank Williams Jr., Losing You

Well I told you once and I told you twice and I ain't gonna tended to you no more
You don't do nothin' that I tell you anyway
And now you're tellin' me to walk out your door
Ain't no denyin' you been lyin' ain't no mistakin' my heart is breakin'
Ain't do much choosin' that I'm losin' losin' you

[guitar]

I finally find out the way you are and it's so hard for me to take
I can't understand your feelin's I wish I had known before it was too late
Ain't no denyin'...

Ain't no denyin'...
Ain't no denyin'...
