Hank Williams Jr., Next Time I Say Goodbye I'm I

Next time I say goodbye I'm leaving I'm leaving even though I love you so Next time I say goodbye I'm leaving unless I change my mind before I go I know that's what I said the last time the last time and a hundred times before But darling next time I say goodbye I'm leaving Unless you kiss when I reach the door Your tender lips soon melt my will of art Your loving tricks may mean or make my name of mind Next time I say goodbye I'm leaving unless I change my mind before I go [ guitar ] Next time I say goodbye... Unless I change my mind before I go
